

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I have been appalled when I see the strong bias that is shown on the Sinclair station, WMSN Fox 47, here in my community of Madison, Wisconsin. A few very rich people who don't even live in my area are controlling the news shown on the local channel.

This is not how journalism and reporting should be conducted on our federally supported airwaves. In fact, it's a flagrant violation of fair practice. Where is their integrity?

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you for your help in this matter.
